

TROOPS PATROL THE KANSAS COAL MINE DISTRICT THURSDAY

Quiet Prevails As 'Petticoat' Army Halts And Abandons Its Offensive

LITTLE VIOLENCE

Followers Of Lewis Say They Will Work In Place Of Strikers

PITTSBURG, Kan., Dec. 15.—State troopers scattered in detachments thru the Kansas coal fields began systematic patrol duty at noon today. Quiet pervaded the entire district. Striking miners and the victorious "shock troops" of the "Amazon army" which in a three day offensive have practically closed down every mine in the field, turned out en-masse to see the soldiers. No violence was offered. Naught but sullen stares greeted the soldiers as they took the posts assigned to them.

Three units of militia are encamped at Girard and Franklin, the northern hubs of the riot district. The drive of the "petticoat brigades" which swept over the coal fields for three days terrorizing working miners, stripping them of their clothing in hand to hand fighting and routing deputies of Sheriff Milt Gould with barrages of pepper, appeared to be halted temporarily.

"Recruiting sergeants" of the Amazon forces were making the rounds of the little mining towns of Arma, Franklin, Frontenac, Cherokee, Chicago and Mulberry, however, the official communication revealed that the next offensive of the marching wives, mothers and sweethearts of the followers of Alexander Howat would not be staged until next week.

Women "generals" said all mines in the district were shut down and there was no further need of a "drive" until attempts were made to open them.

Milt Gould, Crawford-co sheriff, declared that three mines, the Sheridan shafts 17 and 18 and the Clements No. 21 were operating under protection of the troops.

Gould was in the field at the head of seventeen deputies thruout the night. A mob of several hundred men formed south of Franklin, on the Pittsburg road, declaring they were going to Columbus, Kansas to take Howat from the county jail there. Gould appealed to the men to return to their home and succeeded in dispersing the men.

Colonel Rowan, in command of the 300 cavalrymen in the field, announced his men would be used for police duty and that martial law would not be declared for the present. Mounted soldiers are to be stationed in small groups around the mines. Followers of Lewis announced they are willing to work in the places of the striking miners.

RECONSTRUCT RUSSIA OR RUIN GERMANY IS HERR STINNES' PLEA

BERLIN, Dec. 14.—Hugo Stinnes is enroute for London today to confer with British officials on the reconstruction of Russia. Herr Stinnes and other German economists claim that the reconstruction of Russia is essential to European recovery and is the only means of preventing German bankruptcy. It was learned that the invitation to London was received by Herr Stinnes direct from Premier Lloyd George.

Only recently Herr Stinnes paid a visit to London where he tried unsuccessfully to secure German credits.

REPORT OF COUNTY SCHOOLS IS MADE

Thru the workings of the compulsory school law, which became effective at the opening of the school term in September there has been more than 100 pupils enrolled in the rural schools during the months of September and October.

Following is the compulsory enrollment at each rural school of this county: Adams-twp., 9; Bedford, 5; Bethlehem, 10; Blissfield, S. S. D., 2; Clark, 4; Conesville, S. S. D., 1; Crawford, 3; Franklin, 6; Jackson, 9; Jefferson, 1; Lafayette, 1; Linton, 3; Millcreek, 2; Monroe, 6; Mohawk village, 1; New Castle, S. S. D., 3; Oxford, 12; Perry, 1; Plainfield village district, 1; Tliverston, 4; Tuscarawas, 1, and Virginia, 2. New Guilford has none of compulsory enrollment.

Coshocton-co's gain of attendance of 1921 over 1920 was 12.6 per cent. The perfect attendance schools for September and October, 1921, included Millers school, Keene-twp.; Keene primary, Keene-twp.; Soggy Hill, Jefferson-twp.; Moob school, New Castle-twp., and Camp school, White Eyes-twp.

POLICE DRAGNET FAILS TO SNARE GUNMAN WHO FLED CHICAGO JAIL

Police have failed in their attempts to locate Tommy O'Connor, the desperate gunman who escaped a few days ago from the Cook county jail, Chicago, on the eve of the date set for his execution. Edward Darrow, his cell mate, escaped with O'Connor, and apparently has likewise made good his getaway. Sanford Rosenbaum, who has served a term in the Joliet prison for murder, has been arrested and is being held in connection with O'Connor's escape.

Mayor Dumps Liquor Worth $500 Into The Muskingum River Wed.

Intoxicating liquor, appraised at approximately $500 by Mayor W. S. Tish, was dumped into the Muskingum river Wednesday morning by police officers.

There were about fifty-five gallons of the liquor ranging from all kinds of wine to "white mule" whiskey, the accumulation of raids made in the past month.

The greater part of it was grape wine, confiscated from David Holder in the raid on his home Sunday evening. Holder was released upon the payment of $650 in fines.

COSHOCTON MAN TO TAKE CHARGE OF S. A. POST, SALEM

Mr. and Mrs. Maro E. Smith and children, Rosemary and Maro, Jr., left Coshocton Wednesday for Salem, Ohio, where Mr. and Mrs. Smith will take command of the Salvation Army corps.

Both have been appointed to the rank of Captain. Mrs. Smith completed a course of work at the Salvation Army Cadets training college at New York. Mr. Smith studied at the local post.

The post at Salem will be their first command.

FIVE ARE FINED FOR BEING DISORDERLY

Fines of $10 and costs each were assessed five Cleveland bond salesmen, who are making their headquarters in Coshocton, by Mayor W. S. Tish Wednesday evening, on charges of disorderly conduct.

They were E. A. Goldberg, who was fined earlier in the day on a traffic violation charge; H. Van Nest, H. Stone, W. E. Young and M. Hahn.

It seems that the five men, all said to be working for the same company, got into an argument with a salesman of another company in a hotel lobby and created considerable disturbance.

DE VALERA CLASHES WITH COLLINS ON IRISH SETTLEMENT

Deliberations To Be Continued Today In Secret Session Of Factions

VOTE SATURDAY

Feeling Thruout Ireland Is At Fever Heat On Ratification Problem

BY DANIEL O'CONNELL
DUBLIN, Dec. 15.—Tension between the Sinn Fein factions over the Irish peace treaty was at fever heat when Dail Eireann met again in secret session today to continue the deliberations broke off last night. Efforts to effect a compromise over the rival forces headed by Eamonn DeValera and Michael Collins apparently made little headway.

DeValera won another "moral victory" when he succeeded in having today's session held in secret. Collins and Arthur Griffith, founder of the Sinn Fein, attempted to have an open session today, but were defeated.

It is likely that an open session will be held tomorrow, and that a vote on ratification of the peace settlement will take place before Saturday.

Irish papers take the view that ratification should be based on the merits of the treaty. They contend it is wrong to bring up the issue whether the Irish peace delegates exceeded their instructions. This view is held by a number of the members of Dail Eireann. They contend that, if the treaty is acceptable to the people, it should be ratified, regardless of the manner in which it was signed.

A large crowd began gathering about university college building long before 11 o'clock, the hour for the opening session of Dail Eireann.

The leaders were cheered as they entered. At the two sessions of Dail Eireann on Wednesday DeValera led his fight in person, while Collins, Griffith and the bulk of the Irish republican army chiefs favor ratification, leadership of the pro-treaty faction was taken by Collins.

It was evident today that a bitter political feud is brewing between DeValera and Collins.

REFERENDUM.

LONDON, Dec. 15.—Prediction of a referendum on the Irish peace treaty, with an overwhelming vote for ratification, was made in a Dublin dispatch to the Evening Standard today. If this comes to pass Arthur Griffith becomes Ireland's first premier, the dispatch added.

MRS. HATFIELD TELLS OF HUSBAND'S DEATH

WELCH, W. Va., Dec. 15.—Mrs. Sid Hatfield took the stand to tell the story of the shooting of Ed Chambers and Sid Hatfield in the case against C. E. Lively, Buster Pence and William Salters early today.

Mrs. Hatfield, garbed in deep mourning, told the jury what she saw of the shooting. She broke down in the middle of her testimony and sobbed bitterly.

Mrs. Hatfield described how she, her husband, Mrs. Chambers and Ed Chambers came up the court house steps. When the first shot was fired she ran to the office of Sheriff William Hatfield, who had promised her protection. The widow swore Chambers and Hatfield were not armed. She said she saw Pence armed and saw one or two men with guns shooting.

On cross-examination the defense asked when Mrs. Hatfield married Sid, and when her former husband, Mayor Cabell C. Testerman, died. Objection was raised by the state.

B. & O. REPAIR SHOPS CLOSE INDEFINITELY

BALTIMORE, Md., Dec. 15.—Thousands of shopmen employed by the B. & O. are likely to spend a gloomy holiday season.

Announcement was made today that on Saturday next heavy repair shops over the entire system will be shut down and the men furloughed indefinitely.

Business depression and the necessity of economies were given by officials of the road as prompting the shutdown order. None of the officials of the road would venture an opinion today as to how long the shutdown will continue.

RICKETTS FUNERAL FRIDAY AFTERNOON AT M'GUIRE HOME

Funeral services will be held Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Samuel H. McGuire, near Canal Lewisville, for Anthony Ricketts, aged 87, who died Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock after an extended illness of senile gangrene. Mr. Ricketts died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. S. H. McGuire. Burial will be made in Oak Ridge cemetery, this city.

Mr. Ricketts had been bedfast for a year at the home of his daughter.

Anthony Ricketts was born on a farm two miles west of Roscoe, March 30, 1834. He was united in marriage to Miss Mary Jane Wilkin, September 30, 1856. To this union were born nine children. They are: Mrs. S. H. McGuire, of near Canal Lewisville; Mrs. Henrietta Wolfe, Cleveland, O.; A. J. Ricketts, of this city; Mrs. Della Bown, of Kansas City; W. A. Ricketts, Nevada, Iowa; Mrs. Anna Hinderling, Omaha, Neb.; G. W. Ricketts, Coshocton. Two children, Mrs. Dollie Dawson and James Ricketts, are dead. His wife preceded him to the grave several years ago.

He followed the occupation of a farmer, and lived on the home farm where he was born until he was 60 years old. Long after the death of his first wife Mr. Ricketts married Mrs. Kate Parks Howell, of Linton, Ind. He and his wife moved to Linton, where they lived until six years ago, when they returned to the Canal Lewisville community. Later they returned to Indiana, where Mrs. Ricketts died.

Besides his children he is survived by his sister, Mrs. Nancy Fennell, aged 83, of Seattle, Wash., and 23 grandchildren and 25 great-grandchildren.

LLOYD GEORGE HAS BATTLE ON HANDS

LONDON, Dec. 15.—Premier Lloyd George had a new political fight on his hands when the house of commons convened today to continue discussion of the Irish peace treaty.

Announcement had been made by Col. John Grotton, a coalition unionist member, that he would move a vote of censure for the Lloyd George government because of its handling of the Irish question.

He attacked the peace agreement and declared Ulster had not received a square deal. Before commons met announcement was made at 10 Downing street that the premier would address the house again today. It was understood the premier had prepared a vigorous defense of the cabinet's Irish policy and the agreement which resulted from it.

Norman Funeral

Funeral services will be held at the Keene M. E. church Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock for Mrs. E. M. Norman, Keene. Burial will be made in a Keene cemetery.

Ex-President Asks For Certified Copy Of Four-Power Treaty—Sees No Difference In Article II Of The Treaty And Famous Article X—Wilsonian Influence Will Be Felt In Final Show-down

BY D. M. CHURCH
(Copyright 1921 by I. N. S.)

WASHINGTON, Dec. 15.—Woodrow Wilson has sent for a copy—a certified copy—of the new four-power treaty of the Pacific. He asked one of his senatorial friends at the capital today to get him one, and also to get him a copy of the new directory of the sixty-seventh congress.

He would like them as soon as possible.

Whether this request on the part of the former president presages his intention of re-engaging in the political turmoil on the hill none of his friends would say today, but it was taken as proof positive that the influence of Woodrow Wilson will make itself felt in the treaty discussion that lies ahead.

For the time being, Mr. Wilson and his friends at the capital are counselling silence on the question of ratification of the new four-powered pact. They want time to consider the developments of the last four weeks before committing themselves to any line of action.

The former president is understood to have taken no definite attitude on the treaty yet, although it can be stated that he sees no difference between article II of the new treaty and article X of the much hot and finally defeated covenant except a difference in phraseology.

The moral commitment Mr. Wilson and his friends believe is the same in both articles. Mr. Wilson, however, has refrained from expressing to any of his supporters what he thinks ought to be the Democratic policy.

He is understood to have voiced the opinion the Democratic attitude should be adopted with reference to the works of the conference as a whole, rather than with reference to one of the several treaties that are emerging from the parley here. He thinks, according to his friends, that the treaty which replaces the Anglo-Jap alliance, the treaty on Yap, the treaty on naval radio and the nine-powered agreement regarding China should be considered together.

In the quiet of his S-st home, the former president is reading and studying every phase of the Washington conference.

"With his return to comparative good health, he is now doing more work than at any time since he left the White House," said one of his frequent visitors today. "He is a voracious reader of everything pertaining to the conference."

Mr. Wilson already has familiarized himself with the terms of the treaty as printed in the newspapers. He apparently, however, was not satisfied with this, but wanted a certified copy—the kind of copy with which the senate itself will have to deal when it reaches the stage of ratification.

There will be plenty of time for Mr. Wilson and his supporters to formulate their policy with regard to the works of the conference. It is not likely that President Harding will transmit the four powered treaty until he is ready also to send up the Yap agreement and the naval treaty.

Because of the holiday recess, the senate will not get around to considering the documents until well into January.

The former president is maintaining a close liaison with the situation in the senate. Each week some of his supporters on the hill drop in to the S-st home for a chat about current events. According to these visitors the former president has expressed himself as pleased with the limitation of naval armament agreed on but concerning the more political phases of the conference.

Some recent callers at the Wilson home have been Willis McAdoo, former secretary of the treasury, Cleveland H. Dodge, one of his original supporters, Norman Davis of the Morgan banking house, former under secretary, Chas. Dana Gibson, of New York and a few congressional friends.

PREDICTS STRIKE

WASHINGTON, Dec. 15.—A strike, by common labor on the railroads against attempted enforcement of the ten-hour day, was predicted today by William H. Johnston, president of the International Machinists.

Johnston declared the labor board's decision is a nullification of the eight hour day and as an action "induced by the railroads."

BIG THREE DISCUSS NAVAL DETAILS IN SECRET CONFERENCE

Hughes, Balfour And Kato Meet To Iron Out Differences

PROGRAM SHIFTS

Expect Leaders To Clear Way Entirely Of Many Irksome Details

WASHINGTON, Dec. 15.—The "big three" of the conference—Hughes, Balfour and Kato—went into secret session again shortly before noon today to iron out the details of the naval ratio agreement. They met in the office of Secretary Hughes.

One of the chief details to be adjusted, according to authentic information at the time of the meeting, is the character of the ships which Britain will be permitted to construct as an offset of Japan's retention of the Mutsu and America's retention of the Colorado and the Washington.

Two alternative proposals in this respect were before the "big three," it was understood.

One was Great Britain will construct two new super floods and scrap four old dreadnaughts and one cruiser. The other that Great Britain will build two new ships of Royal Sovereigns and scrap four old dreadnaughts.

This shift from the original Hughes program would add about 25,000 tons to America's gross tonnage, making it total 525,000 instead of the original proposition.

Officials were hopeful that today's discussions would clear away the tedious details and pave the way for a plenary session tomorrow or Saturday.

It is only a matter of hours and details until the matter is complete down to the most minute details.

It is understood the powers agree to maintain status quo in regard to fortifications in the Pacific waters.

PLAN TO PROPOSE CLASSIFICATION OF PROPERTY AMEND'T

CLEVELAND, Dec. 15.—Classification of property thru a proposed amendment was decided upon today by members of a joint special legislative sub committee as a means of solving the state tax problem. The amendment was drafted by State Senator Frank E. Whittemore of Akron and was approved by a 5 to 1 vote. The proposal will be submitted to the full legislative committee of fourteen a week from tomorrow at Columbus.

The amendment is essentially the same as that which went to the voters in 1909 and was defeated by a small margin but not all the voters balloted on it. It was approved by a majority of those who cast votes, however. The proposal calls for an aggregate rate of taxation of property, including state taxes, not to exceed 15 mills outside of municipal corporations nor 18 mills within any municipal corporation.

It was selected from 14 proposals submitted by the sub committee which was composed of Senators, Whittemore, Akron, chairman, Rowe, Cleveland, and Krader, McClure, and Representatives Robinson of Fronton, who substituted for Representative Fouts; Taft of Cincinnati, and Graham, of New Concord.

Eleven of the proposals were based on classification, and three on the uniform rule. The only dissenting vote against it came from Representative Robinson who submitted a uniform rule proposal.

Akron Is Wide Open Dry Agent Maintains

AKRON, Dec. 15.—"That's awful stuff you bootleggers peddle out here" was the terse comment of Federal Agent McNair who has rounded up 59 alleged bootleggers in a county wide raid in the past two days. "Why the stuff is so rotten that I had to send one man to the hospital to have his stomach pumped out," said McNair. McNair admitted that to get the goods on the bootleggers his men are compelled to swallow a variety of concoctions, some of which, they say, are little short of poison.

"We visited 20 places in one night," he said, "and bot booze as easy as pop. Your town is wide open."

Is Operated

Miss Elizabeth Murray, general secretary of the local Y. W. C. A., underwent an operation for the removal of her appendix, Wednesday morning, at the City hospital. Dr. J. W. Shaw, assisted by Drs. E. M. Wright and E. C. Carr, performed the operation.

Miss Murray's condition was satisfactory late Wednesday afternoon.

DOROTHY M'DONALD CURED OF ASTHMA BY KERKER REMEDY

Manager of Zanesville Bargain Shoe Store Tells of Daughter's Case

"My little girl Dorothy no longer has the asthma, and I have Kerker's Asthma and Hay Fever preparation to thank for it," is the joyful statement made by C. E. McDonald, 236 Prospect avenue, Zanesville, and manager of the Zanesville Bargain Shoe Store.

"Dorothy, who is only four years old, had a bad case of asthma for two years. She was greatly affected by damp weather; mucous would gather in her throat, her sleep was disturbed, her chest and neck would swell and exertion caused her to wheeze," continued Mr. McDonald. "She took several bottles of Kerker's Asthma and Hay Fever Preparation and it has effected a cure, for which I would not be grudge a great deal of money."

Kerker's Asthma and Hay Fever Remedy is sold in Coshington exclusively by druggists Siegrist & Williams; in Newcomerstown by Geo. A. Beers.

6th St. Theatre

THE KIND OF AMUSEMENT.

Patrons of the Sixth Street Theatre need no introduction to the Al G. Field minstrels. They have seen this popular entertainment on former occasions, and the boast of the organization is that it is need make no apology upon the occasion of a return engagement to the same city.

There have been more editorials written about the Al G. Field minstrels, perhaps, than about any theatrical entertainment extant. Without exception these press comments have been of the most complimentary character, a fact which goes far in showing what kind of an entertainment it is. And having witnessed a performance of the Al G. Field show the reason for this universal approbation is plain.

A fair sample of newspaper comment in the form of a newspaper editorial is the following, which will be of interest to the people of Coshocton, since the Field show is to appear here next Wednesday, December 21.

"Mr. Al G. Field's minstrels appeared in this city last week and played to crowded houses. Perhaps during the entire theatrical season no other attraction has been, or will be, so liberally patronized as this troupe of black cork artists. In the audiences were representatives of every class of citizens—bankers, merchants, professional men, manufacturers and workmen. While minstrelsy seems, in a degree, to have gone out of vogue, there ought to be a hint to theatrical managers in the very large popular response to the minstrel show."

"The American public wants clean jokes, melodious music and decent sentiment. The old-time minstrels furnish these. They succeed year after year where many of the so-called musical shows, making a lavish display of female charms, fail utterly."

Y. W. C. A. NEWS

Luke 1:

It is utterly impossible in the short space allotted to this work to give this wonderful first chapter of Luke. Read it, and we will point out just a few of the high points in it. Luke gave us his account of Christ's life, "having had a perfect understanding of all things from the very first."

We first find Elizabeth and Zacharias in the temple doing the work that was his to do when the angel of the Lord came to him and Zacharias heard the glad news that "Elizabeth should bear him a son, and thou shalt call his name John."

Are we about the Master's work that we always heard the angel of the Lord?

Also, we have the angel appearing unto Mary the virgin, and telling her the blessed news that "she was to bring forth a son, and thou shalt call his name Jesus."

Then the meeting of these two blessed women with that wonderful song of rejoicing that Mary gave to this world.

Then the birth of John and the wonderful song that Zacharias gave to us. Don't fail to read this chapter.

If you lost a young sister, sweet-heart or daughter who had migrated to America, to whom would you turn? "To the Y. W. C. A.," says 297 parents, brothers and fiancées who have turned to its immigration aid when frantic over the non-appearance or the deportation of young relatives. Since last March 297 deported or lost young girls, most of them travelling alone, have been traced in European ports and found by the association for distraught relatives. Thru its representatives in port cities through which migrants pass en route to America the Y. W. C. A. has built up a network of service and information to relieve the hazardous dangers for helpless girls under present conditions.

Last summer Miss Mary Hurlbutt, head of the immigration service, returned from a six months survey of the congested conditions in port cities.

SOUTH AMERICAN GIRLS ARE INDEPENDENT

Ask to Support Their Own Center in Chile and Black Boots to Do It.

South American girls may not be trained for self-support as yet, but their spirit is indomitable. Recently when the continental Y. W. C. A. headquarters inquired what aid the Santiago center required for their yearly budget, after lengthy discussion, they voted not to accept outside help.

"To raise money the girls are even selling their dessert at dinner to those who bid for it," writes Miss Anna May Stokely from Santiago. "One girl is running a shoe shining shop; others are dressing dolls to represent woman conductors on our street cars and are finding a ready sale from tourists; two girls are making Peter Rabbits, selling them at 10 pesos each. Other activities include making Christmas cards and embroidery."

The Santiago Y. W. C. A. is only one of the centers where native girls enjoy the educational and recreational advantages of the associations in South America.

Miss Stokely's home is Newport, Tenn.

BAPTIST PASTOR TO CLOSE MEETINGS AT TONIGHT'S SERVICE

The special services in the First Baptist church last night were marked by a deep interest in the message of Rev. R. W. Edmondson. The congregation listened intently to what proved to be his closing sermon of the series.

"Many of you have said 'that was a good sermon.' If they have been, good sermons, you will be in prayer meeting tomorrow night. A good sermon is one that craves the hearer to know and do," said the preacher.

"Rev. Edmondson is pastor of the Calvary Baptist church of Akron and his arduous duties in connection with his own church called him home today. The fact that he has been able to remain with us for a little more than two weeks is a matter over which we are very much pleased," the pastor, Rev. W. M. Hart, remarked today.

"The coming of Rev. Edmondson among us has been a great blessing to the cause of righteousness in our city. Many of the other churches of the city have shared with us the joy and benefit which have come from his clear messages of Gospel truth. The spirit of co-operation of the pastors and their people has been very delightful indeed."

"Mr. Edmondson has faithfully and fearlessly presented to the people the Bible declaration concerning the eternal consequence of sin and the heavenly reward of the children of God.

"Many have a new-found faith and joy as a result of these special services and the full fruition of the work of this faithful messenger of Jesus cannot now be measured," the pastor added.

The service this evening will be in charge of the pastor. There will be no further services until Sunday, after this evening.

AMERICAN ART WKS. LOSER IN DECISION OF COURT THURS.

The Keagy & Lear Machine Company was given title to the right of way on the strip of land lying between the north plant of the American Art Works and the Pennys tracks by the decision handed down by the appellate court in the case of the American Art Works against the Keagy & Lear Company, Wednesday afternoon.

The street was declared city property and the Art Works is restrained from barring it from public use.

By its decision the court of appeals reversed the opinion of the common pleas court, which had decided in favor of the Art Works.

C. Homer Durand, attorney for the Keagy & Lear Company, said that the main contention of the defense had been that the land had been used as a public highway for more than 21 years without objections. Water, gas and sewer pipes had also been installed under the ground by the city.

The judgment of the common pleas court in the case of W. H. Taylor and C. F. Clark against Fred S. Ringwalt was affirmed by the court.

The case of P. O. Levering against the Cleveland National Fire Insurance Company was passed by the court.

Both cases of the State of Ohio against Eunice Elson, charged with two prohibition violations and assessed fines of $1,000 each, on both charges in mayor's court, were taken under advisement by the appellate court.

The case of Blake Welling, serving a term in prison now for conviction on a charge of rape, who is applying for a reversal of his sentence, was also taken under advisement by the court.

Cases of the Coshocton Specialty Company against the J. L. Dickerson Company and Ralph Phillips against T. J. Norman & Son were transferred to the Canton appellate court for the week of January 17.

The judgment of the common pleas court in deciding in favor of the defendant in the case of C. Guy Bevington against E. W. Heinke was affirmed by the court as was the decision in the case of George W. Darr against Elihu Darr and others.

ATTORNEY C. B. HUNT WINS SUIT STARTED ELEVEN YEARS AGO

A collection suit, started 11 years ago, was brot to a close Wednesday afternoon, when C. B. Hunt, attorney for the Buffalo-Springfield Roller Company, by the application of an obscure Ohio law, obtained a decision from the appellate court permitting him to enforce a judgment for a sum approximating $1,000 against Perry Loos, of West Lafayette.

The statute under which the case was pressed is one stipulating that a will known to exist by the legatees must be filed for probate within three years after the death of the testator. Failure to do so causes the beneficiaries to forfeit their legacy, the property then being distributed by law.

Originally the suit was brot against Elmer Turner in 1910 for the collection of money due on a road roller which Turner and Loos were using in partnership. At that time, it is said, the foreclosure proceedings were postponed on the strength of a note signed by Turner, Loos and Turner's brother.

When collection of the note was attempted, according to Attorney Hunt, it was learned that Turner had left this state. Loos' property was all in his wife's name, and Turner's brother proved in court that his signature on the note had been a forgery.

Elmer Turner was indicted on a charge of forgery, but has never been apprehended.

In the meantime C. B. Hunt, the plaintiff's attorney, learned that the property belonging to Perry Loos' father had been left to Mrs. Perry Loos by the term of the father's will.

This will was not offered for probate until March, 1920, according to Mr. Hunt. It was proven in the court that the existence of the will was known to the defendants for more than three years prior to that time. By failure to offer the will for probate Mrs. Loos lost her title to the property, which then reverted to the heirs-at-law, Perry Loos being allotted one-third.

The common pleas court held that this portion of the estate could be subjected to the payment of the judgment and the defendants then appealed the case to the higher court.

GOOD, WHOLESOME COMEDY IN "CLOUDS AND SUNSHINE."

Snedeker's California Stock Company gave us "Clouds and Sunshine" last night, a rural comedy with a few city people thrown into the plot to make it thicker, and last night's audience took to the play like a duck to water. The comedy in the piece predominated, and laugh after laugh was registered. Marie Fuller, Lotta Maye, Virgil White and Charles Conaway capably handled the four far comedy parts. Glen White as the school teacher and Mr. Arnold as the minister were nicely cast, as were Mr. Emerson and Mr. Hamilton. One thing that stands out above everything else with this company is the fact that every member of this organization is doing all in their power to please the audience. A long run is predicted for them at the Mystic, as there seems to be no let-up to the crowds, in spite of the business depression. Mr. Snedeker states the people want what they want when they want it and he has done his best to give them the kind of a show they want. However, he passes the credit over to the members of his company, for without their loyalty to the management the results so far obtained would not have been possible. "Clouds and Sunshine" will run Friday and Saturday, with a special matinee Saturday afternoon. "Toss of the Storm Country" is announced for the matinee.

BILIOUS HEADACHE MADE HER ALMOST CRAZY THURSDAY Health Talk NO. 86

By R. E. Lynch, D. C., Ph. C.

—When the doctor arrived this woman, a refined type given to much mental activity, was pounding her head against the wall. To be sure the pounding was not vicious enough to be injurious, but the jar was all that interrupted the increasing pain and nausea.

—In this case the headache was due to the stomach condition. The liver was also inactive. Chiropractic spinal adjustments afforded some measure of immediate relief, enough to enable her to sleep, but it took a long series of adjustments to restore the stomach and liver place spinal nerve openings to normal and thus make normal health or these organs possible. In other cases of headache the chiropractor is quite often able to stop the pain in one adjustment.

HEADACHE AND INDIGESTION GONE

—Being troubled with headaches, indigestion and inflammation, rheumatism, all of which prescriptions failed to relieve, I finally turned to chiropractic. In two weeks I was normal and able to return to work. I continued adjustments for some time longer and now, thanks to the friend who advised chiropractic, I am well and able to work without interruption. Buckeye Brevities Gathered By I. N. S.

COLUMBUS, Dec. 15.—If Ohio election laws are used by the state board of sinking fund commissioners, as is expected, in deciding who were Ohioans when they enlisted for service in the recent world war, all Ohioans who enlisted, either in or out of this state, will be eligible for soldier bonus payments, it is said. This anticipated ruling, it was stated, will rule out persons who, residing in other states, came to Ohio and enlisted.

DEFIANCE, Dec. 15.—J. L. Tate has announced his resignation as president of the Defiance Chamber of Commerce, effective immediately. Mr. Tate, who will take office as president of the city council on January 1, said he believed one public office is enough. Vice President D. F. Openthaler will assume the duties of head of the commercial organization.

BUENOS AIRES, Dec. 15.—Last August, Miss Laura Tompkins, 18, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Tompkins, 307 East Charles-st., left Buenos Aires for the Elvira Memorial hospital, the first protegee of the Buenos Aires club in its campaign to relieve crippled children. Miss Tompkins has just returned home.

She went away a cripple, afflicted from birth, her limbs twisted and drawn. Walking was always a laborious task. She returned a happy, grateful person, with straight limbs. Since the operation, she has walked many miles in the manner nature intended healthy persons to walk.

COLUMBUS, Dec. 15.—Appointment of Max Butler, Mahoning county secretary of the state tax commission has been announced by Governor Davis. The position was vacant following the resignation of Robert T. Harris, Columbus, who now is secretary to the governor. Secretary Butler is an overseas veteran of the recent world war.

ELYRIA, Dec. 15.—Jack Hardy, Elyria, who enlisted with the Spanish army from New Orleans, is reported to have been killed in a battle with the Moroccan rebels. His former wife lives at Amherst, near here.

COLUMBUS, Dec. 15.—Believing that aerial photos will be invaluable in locating new factory sites, because they would show railroad tracks and highways, Service Director Duffy announced that he is planning to arrange with officers from McCook field Dayton, for a series of pictures of Columbus to be taken from an airplane.

MEDINA, Dec. 15.—C. E. Chandler, truck driver, was arrested on the charge of violating the Burke truck law by moving an overload of 1,900 pounds.

COLUMBUS, Dec. 15.—Free towing service to members, who are stranded within five miles of Columbus, and installation of emergency gasoline stations for use of members at night are planned by officials of the Columbus Auto Club.

Ralph F. Hirsch has been chosen president of the club, succeeding Charles C. Jones who was identified with the club 14 years. Mr. Jones, who plans to make an extended stay in the west, was presented by the members with a leather traveling bag, completely furnished.

ATA, Dec. 15.—Frank Lyons, of Johnstown, butchered a hog that dressed 517 pounds.

BYESVILLE, Dec. 15.—The Byesville cigar factory has been closed until after the first of the year. All orders have been transferred to the company's Barnesville plant.

BETHESDA, Dec. 15.—Most of the cigar factories here are closed due to scarcity of orders. It is not expected that any of them will open up before January first. Some of this year's crop of leaf tobacco is being bought from the growers in this district and the dealers have small forces at work tying the tobacco, but comparatively little of the crop has been purchased from the farmers.

ST. CLAIRSVILLE, Dec. 15.—The extent to which the motor bus has been developed in Eastern Ohio is seen in the statement that 38 trips are made to and from this town daily. Most of these trips are via the National pike to Wheeling, although regular service is operated to Barnesville, Fairport, Lafferty and Flushing.

Connecting lines, also, operate, making it possible, in addition to side trips to go as far as Cambridge by motor. The service is quite popular. As high as five busses, none carrying less than 18 persons, have left here on one trip of the Wheeling bus line.

COLUMBUS, Dec. 15.—Before going into council meeting, Prentiss Crall, chief clerk of the city waterworks department, a cripple, parked in front of the public library the tricycle he has used for over 40 years.

Police expressed belief that mischievous boys stole the tricycle. It was gone when Crall left the meeting of the city solons. He rode home in a friend's auto and then reported to the police the loss of his tricycle. An officer found the tricycle, about an hour later, at East Broad-st and Grant av. A patrol wagon carried it to Crall's home.

CHICAGO BAD MAN
STILL AT LIBERTY;
COPPERS ON TRAIL

CHICAGO, Dec. 14.—Terrible Tommy O'Connor was still at large today and the hunt for Chicago's latest desperado was continuing with unabated vigor.

Detectives were rushed early today to Hartford, Wis., where a man answering the general description of O'Connor was under surveillance by Charles F. Cook, cop of the Wisconsin city. The man had been pointed out to Hartford police by a Chicago traveling salesman. Two men were with him, who are said to answer the descriptions of Edward Darrow and Frank Laporte, who fled from the Cook-co. jail with O'Connor on Sunday.

The possibility that O'Connor might be in Milwaukee was seen in a postal card brought to Chief of Detectives Hughes by Edward A. Hanson, of Milwaukee. The card, presumably from O'Connor, warned the head of the detective bureau that the first man "who comes near me will be shot."

Hanson said the card was given him in Milwaukee by five armed men in an auto.

While the search for O'Connor went on in the streets of the middle west, legal authorities were to determine today the status of his death sentence.

"Terrible Tommy" was to have been hanged Thursday for the murder of a police sergeant. It is considered that if he is not captured by Thursday he cannot legally be hanged after that date. The state's attorney planned to ask the court to continue the sentence, which, it was claimed, would make it possible for another date for his execution to be set if O'Connor is recaptured.

Ledoux Picketing The Disarmament Confab

WASHINGTON, Dec. 15.—Diogenes had nothing on Urban Ledoux the "Mr. Zero" of Bread Line fame.

Armed with a lantern, symbolic of the seeker for honestmen, Ledoux today picketed the arms conference, "searching for an honest delegate," he said.

Declaring that his original charges, the unemployed ex-soldiers and others have been cured for as far as possible by him, he said those who need him now are the delegates to the conference, for they are not with God.

Clad in the rough clothes and cap of a laborer, Ledoux was a conspicuous figure.

Ledoux was armed with a set of biblical questions with which he intends to challenge any delegate as to his "honesty" should the delegate approach him. He said he would picket the conference until the end.

BIG ULCER ALL HEALED

"Here is another letter that makes me happy," says Peterson, of Buffalo "One that I would rather have than a thousand dollars."

"Money isn't everything in this world. There is many a big hearted, rich man who would give all he has on earth to be able to produce a remedy with such mighty healing power as Peterson's Ointment, to sell all druggists for 60 cents a large box."

Dear Sirs:—

"I was an untold sufferer from an old running sore and ulcers. I had tried most everything without any relief from pain. A friend told me of your wonderful ointment and to first box took away the pain that had not left me before in years, and for using just nine dollars worth of the salve I am cured. The ulcer as nine inches by 6 1/2 inches, is all healed and I can walk. Never, never will I be without Peterson's again."

"You may use this to recommend your ointment if you wish I cannot say enough to praise it." Yours truly, Mrs. Albert Southcott, Lyonsville, N. Y. Mail orders filled by Peterson Ointment Co., Inc., Buffalo, N.Y.

TREATMENT OF CHILDREN'S COLDS

The fact that the child is taking cold or has developed one is in itself cause for alarm. It is proof that the organs of the human body are not functioning.

First a purgative; castor oil or a laxative advised by the doctor.

Put the child to bed and use Nash's Salve as for croup. Carefully apply wet, hot towels for possibly five minutes to throat and chest to open the pores. Then follow with Nash's Salve thickly. Cover this with warm white flannel and arrange bed clothes in a sort of a tunnel around neck to allow vapors to be breathed freely. Don't forget to apply a little of the salve up each nostril.

Morning will find the cold completely broken and the child in usual spirits. Convalescence will follow quickly and naturally.

The same treatment is equally effective for adults.

SCIENCE SAYS SNEEZE NATURE'S DANGER SIGNAL

Strong Constitution Tries To Throw Off the Oncoming Cold.

It is a common thing to hear a man say after a violent sneeze, "I have taken cold."

"This is not so. He is taking cold. The sneeze is his system's effort to shake it off and to warn him to use a preventive."

So, mother, when your child sneezes run and get the bottle of Nash's Croup-Pneumonia Salve. Heed Nature's warning. Apply a little with finger way up in the little nose; have the child close mouth and breathe deeply; repeat at intervals until cold gets discouraged and withdraws its attacks.

Children like the Nash treatment; it is pleasant and does not make them sick. Doctors like it too, because it does not interfere with their prescriptions. In fact, many physicians and hospital use the same treatment in cases of pneumonia.

Children are: Mrs. Hervey Speckman, Mrs. L. W. Leonard, Mrs. George C. Mitchell, Mrs. Joseph W. Shaw, Mrs. Harry Beach, Mrs. Robert Todd, Mrs. E.H. Lynde and Miss Gallagher.

THE COSHOCTON TRIBUNE And Times-Age

Entered as second class mail matter at the postoffice at Coshocton, Ohio, under the Act of March 3, 1879. Published evenings and Sunday morning by The Tribune Co.

TEN YEARS AGO TODAY From The Tribune Files

Coshocton-co voted to return the legalized saloon in the second election held under the provisions of the Rose county local option law Thursday by an unofficial majority of 795 votes.

Jesse McBane, manager of the Citizens League (wet) said the election yesterday was won because public sentiment was now against the boot-lagger and speakeasy, the open, regulated saloon being preferred.

Rev. W. E. Bridge of the County Temperance League says that an analysis of the vote shows that the stay-at-home county vote and a full vote in the city defeated the temperance aims yesterday.

A concert company that entertained at Keene Wednesday night had a narrow escape from drowning while on their way to Keene when their conveyance was driven into the swift waters flowing over the Lewisville road from the swollen rivers.

Supt. C. B. Bryant has announced that after Christmas, night classes in manual training will be started for those students who are not able to complete their school course.

Mrs. Martha Bell, south Second-st received word that her son, William Carnes, formerly of this city, had died at his home in Cambridge.

Under the direction of Miss Ada Freeman, the dramatic club of the high school will give Shakespeare's "Merchant of Venice" in Alcyone hall this afternoon.

THE JOLLIER

Let's hope that when in Washington these foreigners will do as Washington did.

The silver lining to domestic clouds is payday.

Edison says our schools are all wrong and the small boy agrees.

The key to the Far East problem fits an open door to China.

Skinny people can't see why fat people want to reduce with such a cold winter predicted.

Holland is almost bankrupt and the holes in cheese may be larger.

Fewer movies are being made but not from lack of raw material.

Wonder if Providence tempers the winds to the hub?

The French are disarming; births show a shortage of infantry.

Objection to seeing a woman who says the dog hasn't done anything.

The elevator man who married an angel's still has his ups and downs.

Make Long Trip In Auto To Texas Town

Joseph Wolfe, of Canal Lewisville, has received a letter from his sister, Miss S. L. Leggett, formerly of Coshocton, telling of the trip of the Leggett family to Donna, Texas, where they are now located.

They made the trip of 2,300 miles by automobile, leaving Coshocton September 12. Donna is in the Rio Grande river valley about 75 miles from the Gulf of Mexico. The two children are in the public school at Donna.

ATTACKS G. O. P.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 15.—Senator France, Republican of Maryland, yesterday attacked the Harding administration for "failure to reverse the policies of the previous administration and predicted the country would go on the rocks unless such a reversal is forthcoming soon."

France was speaking on the deficit appropriation bill and opposed the action of the house in striking from the bill $100,000 for the relief of unemployment.

NEW YORK LETTER Day-By-Day

NEW YORK, Dec. 15.—A Rialto star who dashed out of obscurity with the whiz of a skyrocket may remain with the same degree of permanency in the theatrical heavens. A family tragedy is clouding her career in a tragic way. She comes of a family of player folk.

ANSWER THESE QUESTIONS

Question—When I have pains around the heart, killing headaches, sour, gassy, bloated stomach, bilious constipated bowels, what will give me quick relief?

Answer—Bulgarian Blood Tea. Question—When I catch cold, know there is danger of it drifting down into the chest and lungs, what should I do to help break it up quickly, and guard against influenza, Grippe or Pneumonia?

Answer—Take a steaming hot cup of Bulgarian Blood Tea at bedtime—add a little lemon juice, it works like magic. You will praise and recommend Bulgarian Blood Tea to every one. You will never be without it in your home. It costs but a small amount and your druggist will be glad to supply you.

and her mother for many years has been a chronic neuritic, having been placed at various times in sanatoriums. There is a rare devotion between them, and nearly every night the mother visits the daughter's dressing room and remains there until the end of the performance, the most of the time in a befuddled condition. Recently a young motion picture actor became attentive to the star. His advances were not unwelcome and they have been seen much together in cafes after the theatre. She is a gay-hearted sprite, girlish and unaffected. The mother, most of the time in an alcoholic haze, has resented the attachment. Jealousy smote her and she has done everything to break up the match. Twice the mother has come to the theatre and raised scenes. Once she interrupted the performance while the daughter heroically drowned the outburst in a flood of golden notes.

On the second visit the mother somehow got in a stage box and between acts staggered to the railing and began a semi-hysterical tirade about a young culture enticing her daughter away. She was calmed and led out.

It is stated authoritatively in the theatrical circles that the producer has warned the star that, while he appreciates her position, nevertheless he must protect a valuable property and another disturbance will result in the star's instant removal from the cast.

Channing Pollock told a story of sweet revenge the other night at the Friars. In a restaurant a man asked the waiter for an order of ham and eggs. The waiter suggested pork chops.

"Haven't you ham and eggs?" asked the patron.

"Yes, but I'd like to have you try our fine T-bone steak."

"I don't want a T-bone steak; I want ham and eggs."

The waiter then suggested sweet-breasts, and finally said, "Why don't you try some of our bacon and eggs?" At this the patron pushed back his chair and angrily sought the headwaiter. The headwaiter came to the waiter, "Why is it," he demanded,

"this gentleman cannot get an order of ham and eggs?"

"I have been waiting for this bird for five years," said the waiter. "He's my barber."

It seems to me, however, that the story is unfair to barbers. My favorite barber has taught me all I know about grand opera and also how to pronounce Thais. Incidentally he told me one day I didn't need a haircut.

And, strangely, at this moment of writing, my glance fell upon the following advertisement: A New York morning paper: "A Tainal barber may offer a tentative diplomatic suggestion, in the manner of Mr. Balfour before the armament conference, but his attitude is one of solicitude rather than solicitation." Also a wary attendant told me that most of the worth-while books were taken away by barbers.

The barber is much more considerate than the average New York commuter. Something should be done to teach the commuter ordinary etiquette. They push their way through crowds, into telephone booths and demand instant attention in shops. It is no wonder that the following advertisement appears in the Eaglewood (N. Y.) Press:

"To Let—Comfortably furnished room for gentleman or commuter."

STATE SPORTSMEN MEET JANUARY 13

COLUMBUS, Dec. 14—Friday, January 13 is the date set for the state sportsmen's convention and banquet at Hotel Deshler, Columbus. Fish and Game Protective Association of every county in Ohio will be invited to send delegates, and a meeting of the League of Ohio Sportsmen will be held at the same time.

Invitations will be sent out over the state by A. C. Baxter, chief of the Division of Fish and Game within the next few days.

Discussions will be conducted on various phases of the work of fish and game conservation in Ohio, and a big push started in the "More Fish—More Game—More Sport—More Food" movement inaugurated by the division of Fish and Game.

George A. Lawver, Chief U. S. Game Warden from Washington, will address the sportsmen, and another leading game conservationist on the program will be the Rev. Noel J. Allen of Virginia.

Ohio sportsmen will present a solid front in favor of a fifty-cent angler's license and in favor of the Free Shooting Ground-Game Refuge policy of the Division of Fish and Game, according to I. S. Myers, president of the League of Ohio Sportsmen.

"Cy Gattin" the famous story teller from Gattin Rocks will be present with his famous houn' dawg.

CARTON'S

"None But Good Shoes."

HERE'S STAR WHO
COST THE GIANTS
75,000 SMACKER'S

Jimmy O'Connell.

The recent purchase of Jimmy O'Connell, star first sacker and outfielder of the San Francisco Pacific Coast league club, by the Giants is one of the most talked of deals put over in baseball circles in recent years. McGraw paid $75,000 for the star, a record price for a minor leaguer. And this purchase price is now being used as a big argument by the Coast league, international and American associations against recognizing a draft arrangement with the majors.

COURT'S DECISION IS FAVORABLE TO THE PICKET PRINCIPLE

2,500 WOMEN IN GRAND ASSAULT ON MINES OPERATING

NEW YORK, Dec. 14.—Officials here of local and international unions are of the opinion that the United States supreme court decision on picketing legalizes a principle which organized labor has long contended is a rightful and constitutional one. The decision contains, they declared, after studying it, a recognition of the right to picket more sweeping and satisfactory than any previously rendered by a high court. The ruling of the court that it is lawful to have "missionaries" around a plant in time of strike, in the opinion of Benjamin Schlesinger, president of the International Ladies' Garment Workers' Union, "undoubtedly upholds peaceful picketing. Organized labor has never approved of violence or intimidation by pickets in labor troubles, and is glad to see a ban placed on it by the courts. Labor unions will undoubtedly find some relief in this decision if the lower courts can be made to follow the precedent laid down by the Supreme Court."

William F. Kehoe, secretary of the Central Trades and Labor Council of Greater New York, while declaring he was opposed to the use of any kind of injunctions in labor disputes, said the decision undoubtedly legalizes peaceful picketing.

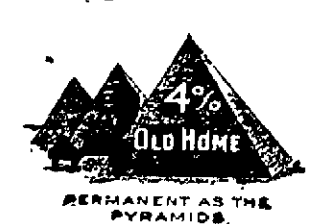

"Organized labor," he said, "has always contended that it has the right to station pickets about a plant in time of strikes, and to attempt by peaceful means to persuade men from returning to work."

Hugh Frayne, international organizer for the American Federation of Labor, said organized labor was "not to be disturbed by any court ban placed on force or violence, which the legitimate labor movement does not tolerate within its ranks."

30 YEARS DOING GOOD

Get rid of that catarrh while you can

Catarrh gets to be a habit.
For goodness sake don't get used to it.

Never be content to live on in that way—sleeping with mouth open, waking with that bad taste, coughing and spitting all day, an easy mark for colds and every epidemic of throat trouble that comes along.

Try Kondon's Catarrhal Jelly, used and esteemed for thirty years for clearing heads, soothing angry membranes and relieving Catarrh. It is a valued household remedy in thousands of American homes. Better than camphorated oil for children.

Kondon's Catarrhal Jelly is guaranteed not only by us, but by 30 years service for millions of Americans. If Kondon's doesn't do wonders for your cold, sneezing, cough, chronic catarrh, nosebleed, headache, sore nose, etc.—we'll pay your money back. On sale at all drug stores.

Avoid substitutes—make sure this signature is on the package you buy.

We want a high type LOCAL MAN to sell securities

WE have an opening for a resident security salesman of high calibre to devote all or a portion of his time to the selling of high grade investment offerings—stocks of well established, going concerns doing a profitable business. The successful man may now be filling a responsible position with a bank, commercial or manufacturing concern. His wide acquaintance among business men should provide him with a splendid opening.

A knowledge of the investment business will be helpful but not necessary. This is a splendid opportunity for the right man.

LABOR SECRETARY PLEADS FOR PEACE IN ALL INDUSTRY

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Dec. 14. — A plea to the workers of America to stop the battles and the warfare in industry, was voiced here today by Secretary of Labor James J. Davis, in an address before a mass meeting.

"Disarmament is not a problem solely for a conference at Washington," Davis declared. "It is something that reaches the very heart of the home of every man and woman in America. It has been said at the Washington conference, that the first requisite for peace is the will to peace, not once in a while, but every hour of our work day life.

"Let us say to employer and employee in their own words, 'disarm'—in the past the strike may have been the only means men have had to gain right wages and working conditions, now the strike is becoming a back number, the time is coming when it will be regarded as a relic of barbarism. I hate both the strike and the lockout. Both are always the separator, never the co-operator. x x x I am vastly mistaken if our people have not already come to hate industrial warfare as bitterly as they detest the bloodier but not more costly conflicts of battle.

"Conciliation of labor," secretary Davis said "is the great need of industry." He outlined his plans to add to his staff of conciliators.

Fifteen or twenty men, Davis said, trained to act as mediators between contending groups "will be a God send to the country, as practical leaders to peace in industry.

"At times when the conciliators are not needed in the settlement of difficulties we would want them to talk to workers, civic organizations, to the general public and even to children in schools on economic matters, social topics, the right of friendly relations between managers and men. These special conciliators would keep first in mind the good effect of resorting to the lost personal contact. Disputes are far less likely to break out among men who know and respect each other."

Pointing out that the American workers are in competition with the workers of the world, Davis said the slogan of American industry should be "increase the quantity and improve the quality. Better work and more of it."

JAPANESE PREMIER HOPES NEW TREATY WILL RETAIN PEACE

TOKIO, Dec. 14.—The hope that the four-power agreement in the Pacific will result in a complete understanding between the United States and Japan was expressed by Viscount Takahashi, premier of Japan, in an exclusive statement to the International News Service today. This was the premier's first public statement of views concerning the new treaty.

Premier Takahashi's statement in full follows:

"On behalf of Japan I express the hope that the pre-ent negotiations, the four-power entente and all naval ratio problems will result in an understanding between Japan and America, and that they will give entire satisfaction to all concerned."

Count Uchida, foreign minister, likewise expressed satisfaction over the new entente in the Pacific.

In an exclusive interview with the I. N. S. Count Uchida said:

"I am pleased over the news of the four-power entente. I am glad to know that America and Japan, whose relations were misunderstood in some quarters in the past, today appear in near and most friendly relations."

The cabinet met today to discuss the four-power treaty and the Yap agreement.

Most of the newspapers, in their initial comment, viewed the treaty in an unfriendly way. An exception was Chuo Shinbun, which said:

"While the people feel that the agreement does not secure China and Siberia, this is not necessarily due to the change of all world conditions Britain did not want the old alliance with Japan continued. But this new agreement means friendly relations among four powers. That is enough."

The press attack on the treaty was led by Yomiuri Shinbun.

"The treaty does not contain anything to secure the far east," said this newspaper. "China should have been included if the whole far east question was to be handled successfully."

Opposition leaders expressed disappointment that the treaty is not sufficient to take the place of the old Anglo-Japanese alliance.

They professed to regard it as a temporary arrangement, and declared the treaty should have been broad enough to include all territory washed by the Pacific ocean.

TREATY OPENS NEW PLEA FOR LIBERTY FROM PHILIPPINES

WASHINGTON, Dec. 14.—The four-power pact treaty was today made the basis of a new plea for independence for the Philippines, in a letter presented to the president by the Philippine resident commissioners, Jaime C. de Yeyra and Isaura Gabaldon.

The plea for independence made by the commissioners declared that in the past the principal objection for the independence of the Philippines has been that such action might make way for Japanese action in the islands. It was declared that under the four-pact treaty such aggression would be impossible, and therefore the great objection to independence is wiped out and the Philippine people are anxious that the administration take quick action to grant them entire governmental freedom.

WALT MASON

"The time has come," said Colonel Hays, "when patience fails and faith, and we shall shoot all lousy jays who try to rob the mails. Too long, too long have graceless scamps defied me to my face, and they have stolen postage stamps until it's a disgrace. And now at last they've spilled the beans, they've shocked the voters' souls, and I have drafted the marines to shoot them full of holes. The ocean soldiers are on guard, no more shall handits scoff, and he who steals a postal card will have his dome blown off." The postman comes to my abode, and tired and sore he feels, for he has dragged along the road a culverin on wheels. And he is loaded down with guns till life seems dark and stale, for he must guard the precious duns that come to me by mail. A sawed-off shotgun on his back, and all equipped to kill, he thus delivers at my shack the tailor's dog-eared bill. With his brass knucks and lance and gun he leaves his smoke behind, and he looks like a war lord Hun who has "Dev-Tan" in mind. Now peace ensoumds my wintry dome and comfort fills my soul, for I can mail a priceless poem, and feel 'twill reach its goal. And when the grocer sends his bill with threat of law and jail, 'twill reach my cottage on the hill since gunmen guard the mail.

—The man had worshipped a beautiful woman. Had laid all his love and hope at her feet. Only to find her a cold and killing mockery.
—The girl had worshipped her father. Thought him a saintly benefactor. Only to find him a murderous rogue.
So here life had tumbled them—broken, hopeless, abandoned—a little more clay in the mire of an underworld dive.
—But the clay was warm with youth, and in it a glimmer of old, fine dreams. The rest is a heart-stirring story of two souls' regeneration.

CHILDBIRTH FATAL TO MRS. STRICKLER; FUNERAL SATURDAY

Mrs. Robert Strickler, aged 31, of Chestnut Ridge, four miles northwest of Keene died at her home immediately following childbirth Wednesday. The infant was still born.
Her maiden name was Miss Sarah Belle Harper. She was born in Van derbilt, Pa., November 24, 1887. Mr. and Mrs. Strickler moved from Van derbilt to the present farm two years ago. Mr. Strickler purchased the Grant Layman farm, where he now resides.
Mrs. Strickler was a member of the Presbyterian church at Vanderbilt. She was a devoted mother and wife.
Besides her husband she is survived by her father, William Harper, of Vanderbilt and the following children: Anna May, 9, Harper, 6, Carrie Lou, 5 and Donald 3. Four brothers and four sisters, all of Pennsylvania, survive.
The body will be shipped to Dawson, Pa., Saturday morning. Funeral services will be held in Vanderbilt. Short services will be held at the late home at Chestnut Ridge Saturday morning, in charge of Rev. Mr. Williams, of Keene.
The pall bearers are J. C. Shannon, P. A. Croft, Edward Endsley, J. E. Casey, W. O. Leavengood and Maro Valentine.
